The seat height of KA125/150 is 760mm. This height is undoubtedly the best height for this kind of light-duty car. After driving for a long time, you will not feel cramped. It can be adjusted according to your height, which will make you feel more comfortable. The comfort of the sitting posture is the key to driving. The beginning of a good mood.

During driving, the KA125/150 makes drivers feel happy not only because of its smooth running engine and fast low-rev response. The overall design of the vehicle can easily cope with various road conditions encountered in daily use, even with 18-inch tires on gravel roads. It can also pass gracefully; the just right driving space also allows the driver to move easily.
